Dress Code

All parents, please make an opportunity to review the dress code policy with your students. There have been many students observed in clothing that doesn't meet the necessary standards. You can access the complete policy here-

<http://www.nebo.edu/pubpolicy/J/JDG.pdf>.

Beginning October 1 students will be notified in person, expected to change into their own appropriate clothing or receive and wear school issued replacement. Each violation will require parents to sign a notification or meet with a school administrator.

Auditions!

Auditions for the Christmas School Play will be Oct. 20th and Oct. 21st from 2:45pm- 3:45pm. Students wanting to tryout need to come and get an audition form from Mrs. Perkins in Room 2309.

College Color Day

Students and staff, make sure to wear your favorite College colors on Tuesday, October 13th. You can wear college shirts, hats, and masks!!

Spotlight

This week's spotlight is on Breanna Ashby! She is the 6th grade writing teacher here at Valley View Middle School. Her favorite color is dark green. She is married with 2 little girls, ages 5 and 2. Her favorite hobbies are volleyball, quilting, and fishing. Something silly about her is she write her name in cursive backwards. She is also a lefty. If she could be an animal she would want to be one of those swimming pigs that live in the Bahamas. How can we "Be the Magic" at school and in our lives? Mrs. Ashby says strive to always be a positive force! If she could meet a fictional character, it would be The Ten Thousand Doors of January. Make sure to say hi when you see her!

Upcoming Dates:

College Color Day October 13th
October 15-16th Fall Break No School

Nebo District's theme for the year is
BE THE MAGIC!
