Spotlight

This week's spotlight is on Zelma Nelson! She is the 7th grade ELA teacher. Her favorite hobbies include anything outdoors. She loves to go hiking, fishing, as long as she doesn't have to dehook the fish, camping with her friends and family, 4 wheel rides in the mountain, and paddle boarding. She also enjoys gardening. She loves a good sunrise and sunset, too! Zelma enjoys high fantasy books and any book from Branden Sanderson. She is currently reading "The Way of Kings". Her favorite color is blue. She has 4 children- 3 girls and 1 boy. She is deathly afraid of heights, and yet has gone skydiving! So fun!

The winners of the library crime scene are Seth Dayley, Jacee Lyman, Brin Rudd, and Julia Walker! Congratulations on using your excellent powers of deduction to discover that Mrs. Elliot was the culprit.
